

CTM. Suguna

B.A 1975-1978

Ms. Suguna is an able Administrator from the 1989 batch of the Indian Administrative Service (IAS) and has coordinated with National and International Organizations (The World Bank, DFID, UNICEF, UNDP, and CARE) and NGO's for a concerted effort to provide, besides, sustained employment, backward and forward linkages.

During her tenure she has held many offices such as Sub Collector, Collector, District Magistrate, Inspector General, Registration, Revenue Divisional Commissioner ( RDC), Transport Commissioner etc.

She was also a member of the Indian 12 that played England at Chennai in 1984. Captained the Rest of India Team against India – XI at Ferosha Kotla, New Delhi in 1986.

She has won numerous awards, some of which are as below:

1. The First Lady of India conferred on her the prestigious Mahila Shiromani Award for her contribution to the field of Electronics in 1995.
2. For Excellence in Management she was honoured by His Excellency, the Governor of Orissa Sri Satya Narayana Reddy.
3. Order of Merit in recognition of outstanding services rendered to the Public in 1994
4. Lady of Electronics Award for Excellence in Management - 1995
5. India International Women Award, 1995 received during the International Conference of Indians & NRI's in Bombay.
6. Glory of India International Award for enriching human and outstanding attainment by International Friendship Society of India
7. Mahila Pragati Award for Outstanding services, achievements & contributions by Government of Harayana.
8. Mahila Priyadarshini Award for Excellence in Management from the IED.