

DECCAN Chronicle

June 29, 2018

APPRECIATING NATURE

Students of Stella Maris College walk through the new thematic herbal garden on their college premises. The garden showcases various herbs used for treatment of common ailments of the body like bones, skin, eye, ear, nose and respiratory system. The garden also has many flowering trees and shrubs. A statue of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of environment, was also unveiled. —DC