Let's catch up

Stella Maris' annual reunion of its alumnae will be held this weekend

If you are an alumna of Stella Maris College, and want to revisit your alma mater, you could attend the Annual General Meet (AGM), which will see a reunion organised by the Alumnae Association of Stella Maris College (AASMC), on September 29.

The reunion this year will include a fete with stalls for shopping as well as food. There will be a formal reunion-cum-AGM in the F2-1 hall. Sharada Sampath, Chief Postmaster General, Kerala, an alumna of the college will be the chief guest. Cultural programs for entertainment by the present students have been planned.

AASMC, which was revived in 1996, has been spearheading several initiatives in the college. For instance, the Career Guidance Cell of Stella Maris College run by AASMC, offers training programmes, organises campus interviews and helps in improving job prospects of graduating students. The Alumnae Student Support Fund also helps students with examinations and semester fees, and the Alumnae Kalanjyam organises talks and discussions with people from different walks of life for alumnae members. The alumnae can even contribute to The Stellar News, the AASMC bi-annual newsletter.

The meet will be held on September 29, at 11 am. For further details, please contact Alumnae Office at 28113350 or visit the Alumnae room at college during working hours.
