Owing to the recent violence against students and educational institutions in different parts of our country, the Students' Union 2019-2020 of Stella Maris College organized an “Awareness Campaign against Violence” for the student community on 13th January 2020 (Monday) in college premises.

Eminent speakers were invited to share talks on this pressing issue. Mr. Suhrith Parthasarathy, Advocate, Madras High Court and Dr. Srinivasan Ramani, Associate Editor, The Hindu for shift 1 and 2 respectively were the two speakers for this awareness campaign.

The two sessions were presided by Dr. Sr. Rosy Joseph, Principal, Sr. Susan Matheikal, Secretary and the Vice Principals of Stella Maris College. By participating in large numbers, the faculty and students showed solidarity.

The Students' Union 2019-2020 initiated a minute of silent vigil with lighted candles. An oath from the Union was read out as gesture of standing in solidarity with fellow students who have been victims of violence and those who are under threat.
