Stella Maris College celebrates National Voters' Day to Encourage New Voter Registration

Our country celebrates National Voters' Day every year on 25 January to encourage and facilitate the voter enrollment particularly the new voters. This day emphasis on sensitizing the youth in involving themselves in the voting process hereby exercising their democratic rights.

Students and faculty of all the Departments of both Shift I & II took the Voters' Day pledge. Standard operating procedures were followed on campus while taking the pledge. Students who opted to attend online classes also took the pledge along with their course teachers.
