STELLA MARIS COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS), CHENNAI

Know Your SDGs

The first project to take off is 'Know Your SDGs'. This initiative is aimed at informing students of the 17 sustainable development goals put forth by the United Nations. Through break-time presentations, videos, demonstrations, and songs by our college's change-makers, the project was successful in generating interest among the students of the entire college. Every week one SDG was focussed upon.
