October 2020

YOUTH AWAKENING DAY

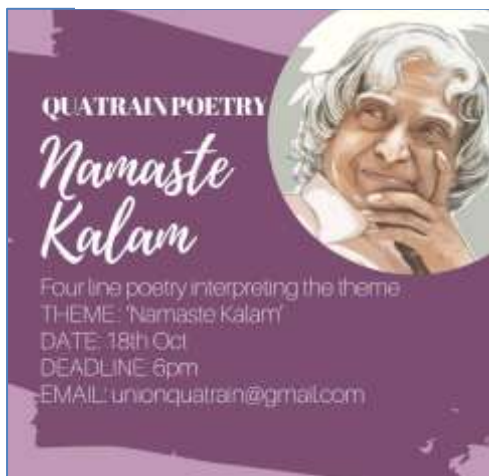

In remembrance of Bharat Ratna Dr. Abdul Kalam, the Students' Union of Stella Maris College executed week long activities to celebrate the 89th Birthday of our former President of India.

The Students' Union reached out to the student community regarding the various activities via their official Instagram handle and Student council WhatsApp groups.

The following competitions were conducted from 15 to 18 October 2020 and later extended to 20 October 2020.

Quatrain Poetry (Namaste Kalam)

Students were required to write four-line poetry on the theme, "Namaste Kalam". They were given the freedom to use their thinking cap to creatively interpret the theme to curate the poem.

Students mailed their entries to unionquatrain@gmail.com

Elocution Competition ('Kalam addresses the gathering')

Students were asked to send a 'one-minute speech' personifying Dr. Abdul Kalam.

They were asked to mail their entries to unionelocution@gmail.com

The winners for both the events were announced and e-certificates were given to them.

The Students' Union along with the Event Management Club of Stella Maris College came up with a video to celebrate and remember the Missile Man of India, Dr. Abdul Kalam.
